WHAT

A 60-minute class focuses on helping you take steps to be better prepared. Whether you own or rent, what you do now can help you survive the next wildfire, earthquake or flood. The session will be presented by Quinn Gardner, Disaster Coordinator, City of San Rafael.

TOPICS

- + Understanding Emergency Management + How to support city responders
- + Ways to minimize damage and injury + How to stay informed + Making a plan
- + How and when to shelter in place + Evacuation + Go-Bags and disaster kits
- + Working together as a community + How to learn more and get involved
- + Hazard specific tips, including power outages

The presentation focuses on things you can do in one hour to Get Ready! A 30-minute Q&A will follow the presentation.

OVERWHELMED?

Don't be. Come to a class or other event and commit to spending one hour to get prepared. Every step you take is one step closer to being prepared.

The session is limited to the first 100 that log on. If you have difficulty logging on or wish to be notified of the next session, please email john@lenser.com.
